GERMANS BLOCKED

Sank a Large Mail Boat Alongside Old British Warship Vindictive-British Shells Damaged the City.

With the Allied Armies in Belgium, unday, Oct. 20 .- (By the Associated Press).-Before leaving Ostend, the Germans scuttled a large mail boat alongside the old British warship Vindictive, which was sunk in the channel there last May. They thus made doubly sure that the channel will be blocked for a ong time.

Inspection of the city shows that Britsh shells did terrific damage to enemy military and naval establishments, but did not harm the residential or business section to any extent.

The raiders bombs partly destroyed the sulphuric acid and nitric vitriol factory and the aniline department. Other buildings of the plant ere wrecked.

The other factories at Mannheim have been heavily bombed 11 times. A heavy death roll has attended nu merous air attacks on Cologne and Coblenz, where the Germans are being heavily repaid in their own coin for their nurderous work on London and Paris. The factories and railway station at Saarbrucken have been bombed 10 times by the British; Karlsruhe, five times; Frankfort-on-the-Rhine, three times; Stuttgart and Zweebrucken, twice.

Most of the air attacks in the Rhine rovinces have been directed against the key railway centers, notably those at Thionville and Metz-Sablon. The famous railway triangle at Metz-Sablon and the junction at Thionville have been raided 46 times. Photographs taken by the attacking airmen confirm the extent and magnitude of the damage done. War traffic through Metz-Sablon has been materially reduced as a result of the frequent raids at a time when quick and regular transport of munitions was vital to Germany's military needs.

At this time when there is sickness in so many families, the burden that is being borne by those not afflicted will result in much subsequent suffering unless steps are taken to build up the health to withstand the unusual strain.

Overwork and worry are the most common causes of neurasthenia, that loss of nerve force which makes so many people irritable, sleepless, melancholy and dyspeptic. The remedy and the preventative is to keep the blood built up by the use of a good, non-alcoholic tonic, so that the nerves will be well nourished. #### BACK TO THE FARM Movement Being Prepared to Help After the End of the War.

Secretary Lane makes the following statement: The Senate committee on public lands has umnimously reported favor of a bill aprpopriating $1,000,-000 to make surveys of farms for returning soldiers. The report states the roposed legislation is for the purpose of providing an opportunity for returned sailors and soldiers to procure homes. This gives a chance for these as well as housands of workers in munition facories and other war industries, who at the conclusion of the war will be our of employment, to secure homes. It is intended to promote the back-to-thefarm spirit, it having been recognized hat one of the great evils of the times our country is the overcrowding and gestion of the peoples in cities, many f whom are utterly unfitted for city fe and not adapted for the avocations ereof.

After the war this undesirable con ion will be greatly intensified, fur er there will be hundreds of thousands young men who will have returned om service who will be out of employ ment and for whom there will be no job positions. In addition there will be ousands of men and women now em yed in ammunition factories and like ratries that will close at the war end. These will be out of employment itany will have some means who could grage in farming pursuits.
